

DEPT 1 – DAIRY CATTLE

Health Requirements

Please refer to the Animal Health Rules & Regulations Summary page earlier in this Fairbook for full detail.

General Rules

1. In order for club members to participate in the Dairy Show, an Animal Identification form for each club is required. Return your completed form to the Fair Office by Friday evening – 9 pm.
2. All livestock must be owned or under managerial agreement between the owner and exhibitor. Animals must be shown by the person who made the entry. In the case of an emergency, contact the superintendent for permission to have a substitute leadsperson. Substitute leads persons should be a member of a recognized St. Croix County youth group.
3. Exhibitors who preregistered in the wrong class or failed to preregister will be allowed to show for a ribbon only (no premiums and ineligible for champions). This includes showmanship. If the exhibitor believes the entry was made correctly, please check at the fair office.
4. Exhibitors are limited to four entries in Classes A through E.
5. Breeds with 10 or more animals will have their own breed show.
6. The St. Croix County 4-H Dairy Committee has established the following judging schedule for dairy breeds other than Holsteins. The sequence of breeds for the colored show will be as follows: Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Jersey and Any Other Breed. The show order will be as follows: Registered Jr. calf, Grade Jr. calf classes and so forth through the lot numbers for Junior cattle of the breed. At the end of the senior yearling classes, the Junior Champions of each class may be selected at the discretion of the judge.
7. The Senior cattle show will begin after a 30 minute break following the conclusion of the heifer show and morning showmanship classes. The sequence of breeds for the colored show will be as follows: Brown Swiss, Guernsey, Jersey and Any Other Breed. The show order will begin with the lowest lot number and proceed through the highest lot number for each class. At the end of the senior show for a class, a Senior Champion, registered and grade, may be selected at the discretion of the judge.
8. If large errors concerning space are found in dairy entries as compared to animal counts sent in for barn stalling, a club may not be eligible for Herdsmanship awards. Loss of future space may also occur. Action will be taken by the Dairy Committee.
9. It is strongly recommended by the St. Croix County 4-H Dairy Committee that the Explorers show a calf born on December 1 or after of that fair year. Explorers may show in the regular class at the discretion of their parents. Explorers entering the dairy cattle show are encouraged to select from Classes A-E, Lots 1-4. Explorer showmanship classes will be judged at 11:00 am in the colored breed ring. Explorers must be registered in the dairy project on their 4-H enrollment forms to be eligible.
10. Registered and Grade Jr Champions may be chosen in all breeds at the discretion of the judge. Junior and Senior Champion and Reserve Champion: The top 2 blues in each heifer or cow class are eligible for Junior Champion and Senior Champion, respectively.
Breed Champion: The Junior and Senior champions of a breed will compete for the Breed Champion
Supreme Champion: The Breed Champions will compete for the Supreme Champion
