

Appearance of Exhibits

Exhibitors must keep their premises neat and shall pick up debris around and within their area. Garbage and other refuse must be disposed in the appropriate barrels provided.

Any materials (such as straw or sawdust) used as part of your exhibit will require a deposit of $50.00, payable with your spot rental fee. You are expected to have this cleaned up prior to leaving the fair. If acceptable cleanup has been done, your deposit will be refunded to you.

P.A systems or other machines making noise shall not be allowed without approval of the Fair. No exhibitor shall be permitted to advertise or distribute matter, handbills, fliers, or heralds outside of their designated area, unless granted permission by the Fair. The St. Croix County Fair reserves the right to spot-check any concession/exhibit at any time. The Fair will not provide any tables, chairs, shelves, or other equipment to be used in a booth.

Please break down all cardboard before placing in the designated recycling area. Do not place in dumpsters.

Admission to the Fair

General admission to the St. Croix County Fair is FREE. A fee is charged for parking and certain special events.

No dogs or pets allowed on the fairgrounds, except those specifically trained to aid a person with a disability.

Security

The St. Croix County Fair hires security personnel to patrol the grounds 24 hours a day once the Fair begins. As they cannot be everywhere at all times, please use extreme caution as to what is left in your exhibit space as we will not be held responsible for losses by theft.

There is a First Aid Station on the grounds, located in the EMS Building. The Glenwood City Fire Department and Ambulance Services are available when called.

Violations

Violation of any of the rules in this booklet may, at the St. Croix County Fair's discretion, result in immediate expulsion and from the next year's fair.

It is mutually understood and agreed that no alteration or variation of the terms of the contract shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by parties hereto, and that oral understandings or agreements not incorporated herein and no alterations or variations of the terms here to shall be binding on any of the parties hereto.

The St. Croix County Fair exists in part to provide a means for exhibitors to temporarily present their products or views, be they commercial, religious, or political, in an orderly, safe, and efficient fashion. Anyone desiring to exhibit must apply for booth space as set forth in the St. Croix County Fair Commercial Handbook, and comply with the terms and conditions of the space rental agreement. Exhibit shall mean activities including, but not limited to, petitioning, proselytizing and/or the sale, posting or distribution of any merchandise, products, promotional items and printed or written materials. Sale or distribution of any merchandise, including printed or written material except under agreement by the St. Croix County Fair and/or from a duly licensed location is strictly prohibited.

This handbook is designed to set forth the St. Croix County Fair Inc. exhibitor (as defined above) rules and regulations. Please read it carefully and follow the policies described within.

State Requirements

The State of Wisconsin requires all vendors at the fair complete a seller's form regardless if you are selling or are just a display only. "Selling merchandise" includes the sale, rental, lease, exchange, barter, or taking orders of merchandise, goods or products for money and/or other consideration. This form must be completed and returned to the St. Croix County Fair Commercial Exhibit Committee with your final payment by July 1, as this form has to be on file and sent to the State of Wisconsin prior to the starting date of the Fair.

The Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection Agency will inspect all food establishments.

Financial Obligations

Exhibitors and vendors must have a written and signed contract with the St. Croix County Fair. The completed and signed contract plus half of the rental fee (please make checks payable to: St. Croix County Fair, Inc.) is due to the Fair Commercial Exhibit Committee by June 1. The balance is due no later than July 1. Upon arrival at the fair, exhibitors must check in with the Fair

Commercial Committee located in the Commercial Building.

Force Majeure: In the event of a pandemic in which local, state or federal government regulations prevent large gatherings there would be no monetary exchange by either party. It is also understood both parties will be held harmless under the act of God such as floods, fire, snow, hurricane, tornadoes, or any other such act.

The fair reserves the right to resell any spaces not occupied by the exhibitor by the slated time with no obligation to refund any money paid to the fair for deposit or rental of the space.

Electricity is included in the rent of a commercial booth. However, if the exhibitor requires any special hook-ups or adapters, the exhibitor must have permission from the St. Croix County Fair and it is the exhibitor's financial responsibility.

Concessionaires/commercial exhibitors are prohibited from assigning or sub-letting a booth or rental space that has been allotted to them nor shall they exhibit, display, disburse, or sell any product, commodity or merchandise that has not been listed on the contract and approved by the St. Croix County Fair. The St. Croix County Fair has the right to deny the display and/or sale of any items, which in its sole judgement are inappropriate, or a duplication of product or service. If any problem or situation arises that cannot be resolved by the contract agreement and above rules and regulations, the St. Croix County Fair Management will make the final decision. Laser pens, smoke/stink bombs, silly string, fake cigarettes, pornography, guns & illegal drug related items are prohibited.

Insurance Requirements

The St. Croix County Fair shall not be responsible for any negligence or unlawful acts of the lessee (concessionaire/commercial exhibitor) or lessee's agents or employees. The St. Croix County Fair will not be responsible for any injuries, claims, losses or liabilities suffered or incurred by the lessee or lessee's agents or employees while on the fairgrounds and the lessee must agree to hold the Fair harmless therefrom. The lessee must indemnify the Fair from any and all liability, loss or damage the Fair may suffer as a result of claims, demands, costs or judgements against it arising out of the actions of the lessee or lessee's agents or employees.

All commercial exhibitors must have $1,000,000 (one million dollars) liability insurance coverage. A Certificate of Liability Insurance must be received by the Fair Commercial Exhibitor Committee no later than June 1. If you do not have business liability insurance please check with the company you are representing as they may be able to provide you with an insurance certificate. If you do not have coverage, please contact Doug Mills at the New Richmond Insurance Agency for special rates. If you desire this coverage, it must be arranged and received by July 1.

Parking

One complimentary 4-day parking pass will be issued with each paid and signed commercial contract. Additional 4-day passes for workers must be purchased on entry day at the main Fair Office

Reserved Space A reserved parking space option is available for commercial exhibitors if requested and paid for by July 1st. Cost is $50 per single parking space for the duration of the fair.

Vendors may drive up to the building or outdoor space to load or unload, but must park in the general parking areas. Trailers need to be parked in designated trailer parking area.

Hours of Operation for 2021

Wednesday, July 14th – Not Open to the Public
Thurs, July 15th through Sat, July 17th 10am-10pm
Sunday, July 18th, 10am to 4pm

All commercial exhibitors must be in place and operating by 10:00 a.m. on Thursday of the Fair.

The west door of the building will be open at 9:30 a.m. for vendors Thurs. – Sunday.
